

GRECOTEL OLYMPIA RIVIERA THALASSO & GRECOTEL MANDOLA ROSA Suites & Villas (Olympia Riviera)

The Olympia Riviera Thalasso is the ultimate elegant spa resort, inspired by the famed thermal springs of Kyllini. The Olympia Riviera is located in Kyllini an hour's drive from Patras in the north western coast of the Peloponnese.

For over a century, affluent Greeks flocked to the springs to enjoy their therapeutic waters and the invigorating air perfumed by the tall eucalyptus trees and the freshness of the sea.

Building on this tradition, a luxury retreat has been created that combines the ages-old wisdom of the Greeks, who valued the healing properties of the sea and modern wellness regimens to relax the body and rejuvenate the spirit.

The feeling of purity and freshness is echoed through the main building, surrounded by bungalows and villas. Plate glass sliding doors, stone white tiles that recall the columns of the sanctuary at Ancient Olympia.

Elixir Thalasso

Cool marine-blue accents and fabrics that reflect the colours of the sea and the sky, primary elements at the thalassotherapy centre.

The Elixir Thalassotherapy Center has three wings. The central building is a rotunda inspired by the temple Alexander the Great built at the sanctuary at Ancient Olympia nearby. A grand staircase sweeps guests up from the reception area into the spa's inner sanctum – a suite of thirty elegantly appointed private massage rooms, changing areas, showers, saunas, exercise rooms, steam rooms, wonderful indoor and outdoor lounges where you can stretch out on loungers and sip herb teas or freshly squeezed juices between treatments.

Spoil yourself completely with an open-air massage on the temple porch, discreetly screened by billowing curtains of transparent white voile. The tranquil flower gardens below are perfect for working through your yoga practice or some private meditation.

The spa's true showstopper is the Aqua Elixir Thalasso pool. More splendid and luxurious than the grandest Roman thermae, it is fitted with a wild-water corridor, cannons, bubble seats, nozzles, and shower jets for the full thalassotherapy experience.

The Elixir Thalassotherapy Center offers a full range of treatments, from affusion and kinesiotherapy to lymph drainage massages, Shiatsu, Reiki, Ratna Stone Therapy, Udara, Gamathi, Sirogriva and aromatherapy massages, either as individual treatments or as part of a full spa programme or even a single intensive treatment. But the ultimate treat is the spa's signature therapies: try the Olympia Riviera Massage or the Beauty Goddess for head-to-toe pampering.

Hotel Facilities

Stepping through the Mandola Rosa's columned portico is like stepping into another world. Inspired by the Belle Époque, this gorgeous boutique hotel evokes the glamour and grace of the Mediterranean seaside resorts of 1920s Europe. The main building stands on a low, naturally fortified mound at the edge of a two kilometre stretch of thick, sandy beach. The reception area and main lounge spill onto a broad terrace with terrazzo and white balustrades overlooking the seawater infinity pool. Pink and white accents are found throughout Mandola Rosa, a subtle allusion to the flowering almond trees at nearby Ancient Olympia that inspired the hotel's name. The Elixir Thalasso and Meeting facilities are in the main complex of the Olympia Riviera.
